

Adam Beck, Executive Director of SCCANZ, was the MC for the Intelligent Communities Forum in Melbourne on 16th March run by InnovationAus.com

The Hon Angus Taylor MP was opening keynote and discussed further the Future Ready program for local government.

The following day, 11th March, the Minister opened the Smart Cities and Suburbs program for applications.

Our 1 day Smart Cities Readiness Workshop's launched, with City of Canning WA, engaging their staff and external stakeholders in a full day session on 10th March.

SCCANZ was the Industry Event Partner for the IPWEA 3rd International Street Lighting and Smart Controls Conference in Brisbane on 15-16th March. Smart street lighting experts from around the world gathered to share opportunities for accelerating deployment of this critical smart cities technology.

Coming Soon! – SCCANZ will be seeking pilot projects to test it's new Smart Cities Design Review Panel process, aimed at supporting projects needing an independent review, while also building peer-to-peer relationships.

Follow us on social media at: @smartcitiesanz

The Week in Smart Cities

17 March, 2017